Vienna, June 14.

Advices of the 3d Instant from Prince Lichtenstein mention that a Body of Turks, consisting of 3000 Men, Horse and Foot, in Three Divisions, made an Attempt on the Austrian Lines, extending from the Right Side of the Glina to the Redoubt of Sztaro Szello. As soon as the advanced Posts perceived the Enemy marching in superior Force, they gave the Alarm, and retired under the Fort, the Fire of which soon obliged the Turks to disperse. A Party then attempted to pass the Glina, and attacked the Austrians posted at the Bridge at Kattinovacz, but met with so vigorous a Resistance, that after returning Three Times to the Assault, they were repulsed with Loss. This Party afterwards rejoined the main Body, and returned to the Charge in greater Numbers, but with no better Effect, finding a braver Resistance from a Detachment of the Regiment of Szluiner, under the Command of Major Knefevich, and from a Company of the First Regiment of the Frontiers, who at length put the Turks to Flight, and pursued them into their own Lines.

The Enemy left behind them 34 dead, with the Standard-Bearer and several Horses. They threw about 40 Men into the River, and carried with them besides a considerable Number of killed and wounded. Our Loss amounts to Two Officers and 40 Men killed, and Four wounded.
